Farmingville, NY - Brookhaven Supervisor Ed Romaine attended the Court of Honor ceremony for three members of Boy Scout Troop 354 in Port Jefferson Station, Scouts Jon-Eric Miller, Zachary Miller and Joshua Pagan all who attained rank of Eagle, the highest rank in the Boy Scouts of America.

"Eagle Scouts are the leaders of tomorrow, and from what I can tell, our future will be in good hands," said Supervisor Romaine. "I congratulate them and their parents on this achievement, and say thank you for their service to our community."

To become an Eagle Scout, a scout must earn a minimum of 21 merit badges, demonstrate leadership, and perform an approved community service project. For his Eagle Project, Jon-Eric Miller designed and constructed a modular cat tower for cats waiting to be adopted at Save-A-Pet in Port Jefferson Station. Zachary Miller's project was completed at the First United Methodist Church in Port Jefferson and included removing an old fence, painting and staining an existing shed and cleaning up the property. Joshua Pagan created a wheel-chair accessible garden area, patio, and benches for the Maryhaven Adult Home in Port Jefferson Station. Since the first Eagle Scout Award was presented in 1912, no more than four percent of all Scouts have attained the Eagle Scout rank.
